Preface

Bharathiya Darshanas play an important role in the intellectual and socioreligious domains. Darshanas have a great influence in the culture of India and Indian living. The aim of Darshanas is to acquire the extreme knowledge, the absolute knowledge and in that extremum it analyses the different aspects in all the possible fields of human life. Darshanas discuss about human beings, the Universe, the God, life, death, heaven, hell, merits and demerits and relation and salvation. The Darshanas are divided into two parts as Astikadarshanas and Nastikadarshanas. Astikadarshanas are schools of Philosophy based on the Vedas. The goal of all the six Darshanas is the removal of ignorance that causes pain and suffering. Thereby Darshanas aim at attainment of freedom, perfection and eternal bliss by the union of the individual soul or Jivatma with the supreme soul or Paramatma. Salvation is actually, the merging of personal self with universal self, which is the real achievement of mystic knowledge.

Acquiring knowledge in Nyaya will help us to analyse and interpret all the other knowledge systems. The unique interpretation of methodology of Nyaya is useful in all walks of life, as it is a logical system of reasoning.
