Activity Details: The University of Kerala has been practising a comprehensive set of initiatives to promote energy efficiency and sustainable development actions in the campus. Under the Sustainable Transport Systems initiative, the University implemented low-carbon mobility measures like buggies, electric cars, bicycles etc. that resulted in annual electricity savings of 1.42 million units and financial savings of ₹85.2 lakhs. The institution has also made significant progress in renewable energy adoption, with the installation of solar panels. Since then, multiple solar photovoltaic systems have been commissioned across campus facilities, while additional rooftop solar installations are currently awaiting commissioning. These grid-connected solar systems have substantially reduced dependency on conventional electricity, lowering energy costs and carbon emissions while improving energy security. The University has further strengthened its research ecosystem in sustainable energy technologies by establ
