CIRCULAR

Sub: University Examinations – Candidates appearing for examinations using wrong question papers – Cancellation of examinations and instructions for prevention of such occurrences – reg.

It has come to the notice of the University that, in certain instances, candidates have attended examinations using wrong question papers. In this regard, it is hereby informed that examinations attended by candidates using question papers other than those prescribed for their registered courses/subjects shall be cancelled.

The Principals of all affiliated colleges shall bring this decision to the notice of candidates and instruct them to verify the subject name, year of admission, Question Paper (QP) Code and other relevant particulars printed on the question paper before commencing the examination.

The Chief Superintendents and Invigilators shall ensure that the question papers distributed to candidates correspond to their registered courses/subjects and admission. The subject name, year of admission, QP Code and other relevant particulars shall be verified before the commencement of the examination, and any discrepancy noticed shall be brought to the immediate attention of the University.

Tabulation Sections shall take note of the above decision and ensure that examinations attended using wrong question papers are cancelled accordingly, with necessary action taken in the processing of examination records and results.

All concerned shall strictly comply with the above instructions.
